Memorandum

TO: Herb Hyman, Procurement Manager

THRU: Patrick Lynn, Chief of Police

FROM: Lori Lysfjord, Office Supervisor

DATE: June 9, 2009

REF: Uniform Contract

The Police Department has studied the bids submitted for the uniform contract and after careful review it has been determined that Global Trading, Inc. is not a responsible bidder based on the fact that Global Trading Inc. does not have an actual storefront as required by the specification. On June 9, 2009 contact was made with manager Barry Levontin at 4709 N.E. 12th Avenue, Ft. Lauderdale, FL. Levontin advised that he had been at this location for approximately one month. Upon observation of the above listed location, it was noted that there was no inventory present, no signage, inadequate parking nor were there any employees on hand to assist customers.

In addition, Global Trading, Inc. is not a responsive bidder based on the Uniform Specification Sheet. According to the specification the bidder will: provide a PER/UNIT price for each item. All pricing to include patches and/or embroidery and/or reflective strips sewn on garments. Nametapes will also be included per unit price. As is clearly noted in Global Tradings bid price sheet under the patches and embroidery section, the price was given in a range versus a per unit price. We are unable to compute an accurate bid total when the pricing is non specific nor according to specification requirements. Therefore, we are disqualifying Global Trading, Inc. for the above mentioned reasons.

In conclusion, we recommend that the award go to the lowest responsive and responsible bidder which after careful review is Gold Nugget d/b/a Argo Uniform Co.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 71a for additional information.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity
